Call for School Logo Design Competition

关于杜伦中文学校校徽设计比赛的通知

Sometime ago, Philip had sent an email calling for competition for the school logo design. The final winner design will be used on the school's webpage, letter head and so on. The new deadline for the submission is 15th January, 2006. All entrances will have a prize and all designs will be displayed on the Durham Chinese New Year Festival 2006. The Mayor of Durham will present the awards to the winners and entrances in the festival. There will be

1 x 1st prize (£ 20 book voucher)

2 x 2nd prizes (£ 10 book voucher)

3 x 3rd prizes (£ 5 book voucher)

The design instructions are as follows:

1. All designs must be on A4 paper;
2. Ideally the badge should include the words "Durham Chinese School" in both English and Chinese or in short, and simple enough to be reproduced as an embroidery preferably in two colors.
3. The badge design could be something to do with Durham or China or even both or neither.
4. If anyone has more than one idea there is nothing to prevent more than one entry per child.
5. The final deadline for the competition is 15th January, 2006.

GCSE and A-level Revision Course at DCS

As a specialist language college, Department of Modern Foreign Languages of Durham Johnston Comprehensive School (DJCS) will open GCSE and A level revision classes from the beginning of October. Ms. Yan Li of our advanced class teacher will teach the courses. GCSE class will be at 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, from 4th October and A level class will be at 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, from 6th October. Both classes will be held at the upper site of DJCS. Classes are open FREE to all students from DJCS, Framwellgatemoor and St Leonard. Could you please let those who are not in the school but might be interested in taking Chinese in GCSE or A level know about it.

Please send me the student's name and the school name which he/she attends.

Thank you very much for your attention.

Lady Fitness Club

Some of you might still remember Mrs. Ann Coppick, who ran a taste session of JIAN SHEN 健身 (JIAN MEI CAO 健美操) for us last October. Mrs. Coppick is happy to come to the school every Sunday to run a Ladies Fitness Club for us. It is one hour and 40 minutes session from 2:10 pm to 3:50 pm. It is FREE. All ladies are welcome. All you need is to wear a pair of comfortable shoes, bring a bottle of water and a small cushion or pillow with you

We are Looking forward to seeing you this coming Sunday.
Kind regards,

Yan
